

It is best if you do not force Sorenson to have interoperability equipment with other VRS. It will reduce competition and will result in lower quality of videophone and its features.

Likewise, it will also be best if Sorenson is not required to implement the Speed of Answer. It is still a growing company and there are yet many quality interpreters to be recruited. Please give Sorenson more time to reach its goal of high quality interpreter.